

Introduction to Activity Management in Long Term Care January 15 – 19, 2024

Important Notes

- This course offers 45 hours of training including in-person instruction, time spent on course-related projects and presentations, and self-directed study. The in-person sessions are scheduled over five days in January.
- Attendance will be monitored throughout the training.
- Credit for each session is only given if you are in attendance.
- Registration fees must be paid in full to receive your certificate.

Tips and Reminders

- Be prepared to interact with the leaders and your colleagues with the least distractions possible. During the sessions, mute your phone or direct all calls to voicemail, and turn off notifications.
- Have examples you can share about activities you have led. These ideas will be shared during the training.
- Be prepared to share a special event that took place in your center or one that you would like to have in your center. Be sure to include details from start to finish. These events will be shared with the class.

Course Schedule

Monday, January 15, 2024 (7.5 hours)

9:00 – 11:00 am | Course Overview—Let's Jump Right In!

Brenda Walker, ADC, AAP-BC, CDP | Activity Director and Volunteer Coordinator | Roman Eagle Rehabilitation and Health Care Center, Inc.

As we kick off the course, you will be given opportunities to learn, network, and experience a variety of day-to-day activities. With thoughtful planning and implementation, you will learn to plan many activity programs at minimal cost, as well as how to modify activities to meet specific needs. Together we will identify programs that are meaningful and fulfilling, and fun for all. You will be given ideas, resources, and opportunities for hands-on participation to prepare you for directing the activity program in your facility.

11:00 – 11:15 am | Break

11:15 – 12:15 pm | Care Planning

Mary Chiles, RN, RAC-CT, QCP | President | Chiles Healthcare Consulting, LLC
Sarah L. Marks, LNHA, QCP | Director of Operations | Chiles Healthcare Consulting, LLC
Valeria Thomas, BSN, RN-BC, LNHA | Director of Clinical Services | Chiles Healthcare Consulting, LLC

Documentation and Care Plans for Activity Departments

In this session you will review elements required to build an effective care plan. Discussion will include an overview of activities' assessment and an in-depth look at care plan development and implementation. Time has been reserved to address specific care plan challenges and opportunities as experienced in your current practice settings.

Person-Centered Care Plans

Participants will explore the intent, commonalities, and differences of state regulations for completing the Individual Service Plan (ISP) for assisted living residents and the federal requirements for a comprehensive care plan for nursing center residents. The session will focus on developing and maintaining resident-centered care plans that include participation by the resident and the resident's representative.

12:15 – 1:30 pm | Lunch (on your own)

1:30 – 4:00 pm | Care Planning continued

Mary Chiles, Sarah Marks, & Valeria Thomas

8:30 – 10:30 am | Filling the Days with Meaning

Brenda Walker

Activity Calendar-Planning for a Day, Week, Month, and Year

This educational session will prepare activity professionals on how to achieve great time-management skills in activity calendar planning. Activity professionals will also expand their perspective about what is the difference between a good activity calendar versus a great activity calendar! Learning techniques that will improve and stimulate the activity professional's insight into quality activity programming, even on a tight budget, will be enhanced through this session.

A Day in the Life of a Resident

Have you ever really noticed that completing caregiving tasks may not equate well with the behaviors of dementia residents? This session will offer you advice and practical how-to on working with individuals in long term care. What can you do with just five minutes to provide engaging activity programming to dementia residents? You will learn how much you can take advantage of every moment, even if it is only a few minutes at a time, to provide meaningful enrichment for all.

Hooray! It's a Themed Week of Events

Are you an activity professional that wants to try something entirely new and different? This session will help you to think outside of the box. Themed weeks of events are weeks that bring about unlimited creativity for the activity professional. These themed weeks also engage every member of a facility family as well as give you a chance to grow your volunteer ranks, and market your facility bed census.

Dementia Care Best Practices Recommendations

The Alzheimer's Association's 2018 Dementia Care Practice Recommendations were developed to better define quality care across all care settings and throughout the disease course. They are intended for professional care providers who work with individuals living with dementia and their families in residential and community-based care settings. The recommendations outline quality care practices based on a comprehensive review of current evidence, best practices, and expert opinions. Napper will share details about these recommendations, which inform and influence dementia care standards, training, practices, and policy from a person-centered focus.

12:15 – 1:30 pm | Lunch

1:45 – 2:45 pm | Create an Environment of Joy and Success: A Practical Approach to Person-Centered Care

Kari Brizendine | Education Specialist | Select Rehabilitation, Inc.

With the understanding that every person is an individual with a life story and residual memory and skills, we can predict and prevent outbursts and difficulties to create an environment where the care is person-centered, and the person is able to function at their highest level while enjoying their life. Knowing the characteristics common to individuals with neurocognitive disorders will allow an anticipation of needs. This translates to success with incontinence and fall prevention, improvement of skin integrity, and participation in self-care, and activity and leisure time that stimulates and engages. Care plans will be developed around individual needs, activities will be meaningful, family and staff interactions will bring joy both to the person as well as those participating in their care. The approach discussed will take into consideration that the person continues to be an individual who has a life that matters by utilizing strategies that allow for success, dignity, and joy.

2:45 – 3:00 pm | Break

3:00 – 5:00 pm | Dementia Care and Healthy Aging

Sharon Napper

Music & Dementia

Music can enrich the lives of people with Alzheimer's disease, allowing for self-expression and engagement, even after dementia has progressed. Music can be powerful. Studies have shown music may reduce agitation and improve behavioral issues that are common in the middle-stages of the disease. Even in the late stages of Alzheimer's, a person may be able to tap a beat or sing lyrics to a song from childhood. Music provides a way to connect, even after verbal communication has become difficult. Join us for an engaging lecture on Dementia and Music.

Healthy Living for Your Brain & Body

For centuries, we've known that the health of the brain and the body are connected. But now, science is able to provide insights into how to optimize our physical and cognitive health as we age. Join us to learn about research in the areas of diet and nutrition, exercise, cognitive activity, and social engagement, and use hands-on tools to help you incorporate these recommendations into a plan for healthy aging.

Creative Movement for The Young at Heart (1.5 hours)

Sara Pascale | The Dance Studio

Discover various exercises and creative movement techniques that can be adapted to the needs and desires of your residents.

Behavioral Health: Care Process for Residents with Dementia (6 hours)

Barbara Speedling | Quality of Life Specialist

This four-part webinar series led by Barbara Speedling is designed to assist both nursing facilities and assisted living communities in the development of systems and program to optimize the quality of life and function of residents in long term care (LTC) settings. You'll learn about improving approaches to meeting the health, psychosocial and behavioral health needs of all residents, especially those with dementia.

You will gain the information and resources needed to create systems to facilitate rapid and focused recognition and response to psychosocial and behavioral health needs in the following ways:

- Communicating behavioral management or mental/psychosocial interventions that should be carried out between disciplines and to direct care staff timely and consistently;
- Reviewing behavior and/or mental/psychosocial symptoms and the roles various disciplines play in the management of behavioral and/or mental/psychosocial symptoms on an ongoing basis;
- Communicating what, when, and to whom to report indications of behavioral, mental and/or emotional status changes to all caregivers; and
- Monitoring implementation of the care plan, effectiveness of interventions, and any changes in symptoms that have occurred over time on an ongoing basis.

Session Descriptions

Session One

The intent and objectives of this course are reviewed in tandem with the revised federal regulations for trauma-informed care and behavioral health. The numbers of LTC residents with dementia grows every day, resulting in new challenges to achieving quality of life and psychosocial wellbeing. This conversation offers a fresh perspective on developing a person-centered assessment and care plan process.

Session Two

Dementia affects every individual differently. This conversation explores the most effective methods to capture a truly person-centered view of the individual. Addressing the needs of each resident requires a holistic approach to understanding the pre-dementia personality and lifestyle. Co-morbid conditions, such as depression or anxiety, require careful consideration in the development of the care plan. This session revisits some of the tools introduced during the dementia focused survey project and their value in today's assessment process.

Session Three

How do you measure the quality of life of an individual? How do you describe the culture of your LTC community? In this session, we will explore the elements and circumstances that resulted in an environment that is truly livable. The COVID-19 pandemic has had a devastating effect on LTC as an industry and as individual communities. This session offers a blueprint for rebuilding your community and achieving the cultural confidence and trauma informed perspective required to promote healing and recovery.

Session Four

The revised regulations for residents' rights require that we establish clear criteria for establishing capacity, particularly as it relates to the admission to and discharge from a secure memory care unit. In this final conversation, we will review the elements required for a compliant memory care environment. Additionally, we will review the intent and value of utilizing the Quality Assurance Performance Improvement process to ensure that your hard work is sustained over time.

Therapeutic Recreation: Meeting the Challenges of a New Generation (1 hour)

Barbara Speedling | Quality of Life Specialist

This session provides caregivers, particularly those involved in designing and facilitating behavioral interventions, with ideas and strategies for satisfying the needs of a rapidly changing population. Discussion is focused on developing a team approach to the provision of meaningful activity and the benefits of a well-coordinated, interdisciplinary program of activity designed to engage and divert, particularly in cases where challenging behaviors are being addressed. Examples of current deficiency citations impacting activities and review of the revised federal regulations for activities will be offered for consideration.

Toxic to Transparent: A Culture Shift in Communication (1 hour)

Bree Becker, MSN, FNP-C, RNC-MNN | Director of Clinical Quality | Matchwell

This session will help you distinguish between toxic versus transparent communication. Knowing how to identify signs and symptoms of toxic communication and the associated risks to the person, patient, and organization can help you foster a culture of transparent communication. You will also learn how to identify your personal style of communication.
